

General information for seafarers

Regarding Test Exam allowance and Behavior Rules

- The test exam is conducted three times a week:
  - Monday
  - Wednesday
  - Friday
- The exam starts at 10:00, the registration time is from 09:00 to 10:00;
- Seafarers have to present an ID Card or Seaman's Book to be allowed to take an exam;
- The examination process is monitored by the representatives of the seafarers' department and Security Police Department;
- Examination process is monitored with Video-Audio monitoring system;
- Before the exam it is required from Seafarer to turn off the mobile phone and pass it to the employee of the seafarers' department. After the test exam the mobile phone is returned to the seafarer.
- It is prohibited to come to the exam without providing ID Card.
- It is prohibited to come to the exam under alcohol influence and dressed in inappropriate manner;
- It is prohibited to use mobile phone, memory card and online sites, to interact with other test takers and use of any additional informational material.

Seafarer, noticed in violation of the above-mentioned rules or other acts forbidden by law, will be given a verbal warning, in case of re-violation he/she will be excluded from test exam and will be forbidden to pass the test for 1 month.

Maritime Transport Agency wishes you success!